Description

Belmont is a really nice horse with all the right check marks: Movement, temperament, pedigree, conformation. A definite candidate for national championships in multiple categories. He is started under saddle in early 2024 and has been in professional saddle training for the past 6 mos. His pedigree includes two dozen really famous horses who are national champions on 3 continents. There are 4 youtube videos of Belmont. One focuses on his pedigree, one on his movement and temperament, the third one on how he handles an obstacle course and the last his most recent saddle work.
