Description

This horse can be leased or purchased. Maybe you want a learner horse or competition horse without investing the capital to own. This beautiful black Dash For Cash great granddaughter could be just the ticket. For $550 per month you can even board her at beautiful Rancho del Lago, 30 min east of Austin between Elgin and Giddings. You get to try out horse ownership only paying board and maintenance without the commitment and capital to own. If things go well you might decide to purchase her. Lessons are available if you wish from renown trainers. Perfect for someone who wants a horse to try out. She could also be leased as a broodmare. Her 6 year old Azteca (half quarter horse; half Andalusian) is also on site. There are two recent you tube videos of her for your review. One ground work and one ridden.
