P.R.E. Bay Stallion w 3 national titles

From $ 25,000

Description

A new price will be set for this horse soon but has not been determined as present. He is currently in training with a USDF Gold Medalist near Houston and is making rapid progress. Halston ORO has it all: Great conformation, movement, fabulous pedigree and multiple national titles. In his first show he landed a national championship in Sport Horse under saddle and reserve National champion in dressage suitability and another reserve in hunt seat open. He came in 3rd in senior stallions. His sire is from the esteemed breeding program of Gremlin Farms by Guacho III, a qualified top dressage sire imported off the Spanish Olympic training team. Gaucho's sire is Panadero VIII, national champion of Spain. Halston's grandsire on his dam's side and great grandsire on his sire's side is the legendary Indiano 18, twice champion of Mexico. His other grandsire on the dams side is Centella V, champion of Spain. He has been saddle trained and ridden in the recent IALHA national show. His full sister was Region 5 Champion Mare and Best Movement and is the dam of 2 National Champions. Other close relatives hold numerous National titles. There are several videos of Halston on youtube.
